What We Do at Etsell, Inc.

Etsell, Inc. is a privately held company that was incorporated in 1976. Operating as Etsell, Inc. and doing business as Shrine Services and Community Assistance Services we provide professional fundraising services and are contracted by individual Shrine Centers and other charities in various cities throughout the country to conduct telemarketing fundraising campaigns. Through this effort we are able to provide the Shriners with a large portion of the funding they need to maintain their fraternity and presence in their local communities, as well as provide operating funds for other charities with whom we are contracted.

The majority of our fundraising is for the Shrine Circus event which takes place at various times during the year in each city. The Shriners schedule their own circus event and provides free passes to thousands of disadvantaged children, adults and senior citizens in their community.

Our job is to call on potential residential and business contributors in the community. As part of our fundraising efforts on the Shriners' behalf, the Shrine distributes many thousands of free circus passes to these disadvantaged people every year. For their contribution the contributor will also receive complimentary passes, so that they can attend the circus if they want. Residential sponsorship levels average $35.

Proceeds from our fundraising effort on behalf of the Shrine Circus provide operating funds for the local Shrine fraternity. Proceeds from our fundraising efforts do NOT benefit the Shriners Hospitals for Children or the Shrine Burn Centers. Employees should never refer to the Shrine Hospitals in any way during any telemarketing call. Failure to follow this instruction will be grounds for immediate termination.

Because we are representing the Shriners and other charities, it is necessary to present a professional and courteous attitude when talking with sponsors at all times.

Your Employer is Etsell, Inc.

Any questions, concerns or comments regarding your employment should be directed to the Project Manager or to the Human Resources Dept. at (877) 244-5275.

Administrative Assistant Hourly (AAH) staff hours will be based on project need as determined by the Project Manager and the AAS. The Project Manager or AAS will notify the AAH of their work schedule at time of hire. AAH staff may not work more than 40 hours per week.

Attendance Policy

Absenteeism

Absences should be requested in writing at least one week in advance and the written request should include the employee's name, date of request, and dates of requested time off. Hourly, business commission callers, administrative hourly and Keystone agents will submit the request to their Manager.

Managers and salaried employees will submit their request to an officer of Etsell, Inc. for written approval. If the employee has not received written approval from an officer of Etsell, Inc. and takes the absence anyway, that absence will be considered unexcused.

No time off requests will be granted for the two weeks prior to and the two weeks immediately following the vacation holiday two week shutdown.

All absences for which an employee is unable to provide a one-week notice will be considered unexcused. An exception will be noted if employee provides a doctor's note indicating the absence was due to illness.

An employee must notify their manager a minimum of one half hour prior to their scheduled work time for all absences for which the employee is unable to provide a one-week notice.

Two (2) unexcused absences within a four (4) week period will result in a disciplinary action up to and including but not limited to loss of bonuses, written warning and termination.

Two (2) consecutive absences for which an employee does not call in will constitute job abandonment and will be considered the employee's resignation from the position, and the employee will be voluntarily terminated.

Tardiness

If an employee will be late for their scheduled work time, they are required to notify their manager. If the employee has provided proper notice, then their time for that shift will begin on the next quarter hour after their arrival.

If an employee arrives late and has not given proper notification, the employee may be denied work for their scheduled shift that day, and further disciplinary action may be taken. If the tardy employee is allowed to work that day, their time for that shift will begin on the next quarter hour after their arrival. A second violation for an unexcused tardy will result in disciplinary action up to and including but not limited to loss of bonuses, written warning and termination. Seating is on a first-come, first-served basis.

Special Attendance Circumstances for Keystone Agents

Keystone call center agents may not exceed five (5) scheduled days off in any one calendar year without making up the time missed. Time missed in excess of five (5) scheduled days during one calendar year and any unexcused absence must be made up within three (3) business days. If these hours are not made up, the missing shift hours will be included in the Keystone agent's total number of hours worked for that two (2) week pay period and will be calculated against the employee's actual production and will thus be calculated into the formula which determines the employee's pay rate for that pay period.

Special Attendance Circumstances for Salaried Employees

Salaried Employees may request up to five (5) paid personal days off with the following exceptions: 1) No paid personal days may be taken during the two weeks immediately preceding and the two weeks immediately following the two week vacation holiday shutdown; 2) No paid personal days may be taken for the first 60 days of employment; 3) There is only one paid personal day allowed for every 60 working days. The five (5) personal days off will not be taken consecutively unless pre-approved in writing by an Officer of Etsell, Inc. Absences in excess of five (5) scheduled days will not be paid and will be considered excessive absenteeism.

Unpaid absences consisting of a full day for all Salaried Employees will be deducted in increments of 20% per day regardless of which day of the week on which the unpaid absence occurred.

Example: If a Manager's salary is $800 per week, and they are absent one day during the week, the pay for that week would be $800 minus 20% of $800 (one day's pay) which equals total pay for the week of $640.00.

Partial hours missed during the year will also be credited toward the five (5) personal days. Any partial time missed by Salaried Employees will be calculated as a percentage of the week based on 45 hours for Managers and 40 hours for all other Salaried Personnel. For example: if a salaried Administrative Assistant is absent 3 hours in one week, that will count as 7.5 % of the work week (3 hours missed divided by 40 hours) used for personal time. In that case and without any other absences, this employee still has eligibility for 92.5% of their five (5) paid personal days.

After a Salaried Employee has used all five (5) personal days, unpaid hours for increments less than one day will be deducted from the employee's pay calculated as a percentage of the week based on 45 hours for Managers and 40 hours for all other Salaried Personnel. For example: If a Manager's salary is $800 per week, and they are absent 3 hours during the week, the pay for that week would be calculated as follows (3 hours missed / 45 = a 6.67% deduction X $800 = $53.33, therefore, the Managers pay for the week would be $800 less $53.33 for a total of $ 746.67).

Project Managers are expected to be at the office and preparing for operation at 8:30 am and 1:00 pm after lunch Monday through Friday, and at 5:30 pm after the evening break Monday through Thursday during all scheduled work days. It is imperative that Project Managers arrive on time in the mornings and after each break in order to effectively monitor the attendance of staff and to set an example for the staff.

If at any time an Officer of Etsell, Inc. calls a project and the Project Manager or the AAS is absent from the office for any reason, an unexcused absence will be recorded on the attendance record of that employee unless: 1) that absence was pre-approved as noted in this Handbook, 2) the employee returns the call to the Officer of Etsell, Inc. in a reasonable amount of time while at the Project Office verifiable by caller ID to either Phil Jett at (865) 588-1322 or Tracy Sherrill Henderlight at (865) 246-0075.

Attendance Record Keeping

An attendance calendar will be maintained for all employees by that employee's management. Attendance occurrences include absences, tardies, early outs or any time missed from an employee's regular schedule.

Attendance occurrences are recorded daily for all employees. Any attendance occurrence not in accordance with policies stated in this Handbook will result in disciplinary action up to and including but not limited to loss of bonuses, written warning and termination.

Excessive Attendance Occurrences

Excessive absenteeism, tardiness, excessive breaks or other attendance occurrences whether excused or not will not be tolerated. Employees who violate this Attendance policy will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including but not limited to deductions from bonuses, written warning and termination.

Inclement Weather

In the event of inclement weather the project / call center manager will leave a voice mail message on the main office phone number for employees to call in order to get the working schedule for the day. PLEASE LISTEN TO THE MESSAGE. This message will be updated regularly as weather conditions change. It is the Call Center Manager's responsibility to update the message periodically throughout the day if conditions change. It is the employee's responsibility to check the message regularly in order to avoid any unexcused absence or tardy.

If the office is closed due to inclement weather, DO NOT leave a message indicating you will not be at work as this absence will be considered excused since the office is closed.

If the weather conditions are suitable for any office to be open and operational, the Attendance Policy of this handbook will apply; and any absence, tardy or other attendance occurrence will be considered unexcused unless the employee brings a doctor's excuse. Employees will need to leave a message on the voicemail indicating they will not be at work.

Meals and Breaks

Break Times

Employees who begin work prior to 10:30 am and work through the afternoon shift will take an unpaid lunch break. Employees who begin work after 1:00 pm and work through the evening shift will take an unpaid evening meal break. The local Project Manager will advise employees of meal break times and will have the schedules posted in each individual Call Center.

A ten (10) minute break will be given to employees in the middle of each shift worked.

Breaks should be used to get a drink, use the restroom, smoke, etc. These things should be done ONLY during your break.

If you are running late to work after any meal or ten-minute break, the tardy will be considered an attendance occurrence and the Attendance Policy section of this Handbook will apply.

Taking excessive breaks will be considered an attendance occurrence, and the Attendance Policy section of this handbook will apply.

Break times are subject to change at management's discretion, and Managers will notify employees as to any adjusted break schedule in a timely manner.

The average number of hours worked per week will be divided by four for part-time and evening employees (less than 20 hours per week).

Jury Duty

Jury duty is defined as a court summons for the obligation to serve on a jury or to act as a subpoenaed witness. Absences when employees appear in a case as a plaintiff or defendant or for any non-subpoenaed court appearance will not be considered jury duty and will not be paid as such.

While the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) in federal law does not require payment for time not worked, including jury duty, some state laws require employers to pay employees who are called to jury duty. Etsell, Inc.'s policy with regard to jury duty has been written so as to comply with the state laws of all the states where we have employment presence.

Employment status will not be affected in any way due to an employee being summonsed to jury duty, so long as the employee gives the required notice prior to taking jury duty leave.

In order to make the required notice an employee must exhibit the summons to their manager the next day following receipt of the summons or within a minimum of 5 days before the date the employee is required to appear for jury duty.

Employees who work a shift preceding the hours in which court is normally held will be granted jury duty leave for the shift immediately preceding the court time displayed on the summons if it is during the same day.

The employee must provide notice of jury duty service from the court for every day of absence due to jury duty leave. Jury duty absences will be considered excused so long as the employee provides this notice to the manager. Any absence without proper documentation will be considered unexcused.

The employee will be paid their usual compensation for employment, LESS any fee received from the state or court for jury service. Usual compensation will be calculated using the average pay per hour the employee has achieved for the previous 6 months of work, or if an employee has worked less than six months the average will be calculated for their time of employment. In order to receive usual compensation the employee must provide to their manager a compensation notice from the state or court indicating the fee they received or will receive for jury service. If the fee for jury service exceeds the usual compensation, the employee will not receive any additional pay. The employee will receive no compensation from the company for jury duty until they provide a compensation notice from the state or court indicating the fee they received or will receive for jury service.

The Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA)

Basic Leave Entitlement

FMLA requires covered employers to provide up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave to eligible employees for the following reasons:

- For incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care or child birth;
- To care for the employee's child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
- To care for the employee's spouse, son or daughter, or parent, who has a serious health condition; or
- For a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee's job.

Military Family Leave Entitlements

Eligible employees with a spouse, son, daughter, or parent on active duty or call to active duty status in the National Guard or Reserves in support of a contingency operation may use their 12-week leave entitlement to address certain qualifying exigencies. Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

FMLA also includes a special leave entitlement that permits eligible employees to take up to 26 weeks of leave to care for a covered service member during a single 12-month period. A covered service member is a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who has a serious injury or illness incurred in the line of duty on active duty that may render the service member medically unfit to perform his or her duties for which the service member is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy; or is in outpatient status; or is on the temporary disability retired list.

Benefits and Protections

During FMLA leave, the employer must maintain the employee's health coverage under any "group health plan" on the same terms as if the employee had continued to work. Upon return from FMLA leave, most employees must be restored to their original or equivalent positions with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms.

Use of FMLA leave cannot result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of an employee's leave.

Eligibility Requirements

Employees are eligible if they have worked for a covered employer for at least one year, for 1,250 hours over the previous 12 months, and if at least 50 employees are employed by the employer within 75 miles.

Definition of Serious Health Condition

A serious health condition is an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves either an overnight stay in a medical care facility, or continuing treatment by a health care provider for a condition that either prevents the employee from performing the functions of the employee's job, or prevents the qualified family member from participating in school or other daily activities.

Subject to certain conditions, the continuing treatment requirement may be met by a period of incapacity of more than 3 consecutive calendar days combined with at least two visits to a health care provider or one visit and a regimen of continuing treatment, or incapacity due to pregnancy, or incapacity due to a chronic condition. Other conditions may meet the definition of continuing treatment.

Use of Leave

An employee does not need to use this leave entitlement in one block. Leave can be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule when medically necessary. Employees must make reasonable efforts to schedule leave for planned medical treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the employer's operations. Leave due to qualifying exigencies may also be taken on an intermittent basis.

Substitution of Paid Leave for Unpaid Leave

Employees may choose or employers may require use of accrued paid leave while taking FMLA leave. In order to use paid leave for FMLA leave, employees must comply with the employer's normal paid leave policies.

Employee Responsibilities

Employees must provide 30 days advance notice of the need to take FMLA leave when the need is foreseeable. When 30 days notice is not possible, the employee must provide notice as soon as practicable and generally must comply with an employer's normal call-in procedures.

Employees must provide sufficient information for the employer to determine if the leave may qualify for FMLA protection and the anticipated timing and duration of the leave. Sufficient information may include that the employee is unable to perform job functions, the family member is unable to perform daily activities, the need for hospitalization or continuing treatment by a health care provider, or circumstances supporting the need for military family leave. Employees also must inform the employer if the requested leave is for a reason for which FMLA leave was previously taken or certified. Employees also may be required to provide a certification and periodic recertification supporting the need for leave and may also be required to provide a certified fitness for duty statement from a physician in order to return to work.

Employer Responsibilities

Covered employers must inform employees requesting leave whether they are eligible under FMLA. If they are, the notice must specify any additional information required as well as the employees' rights and responsibilities. If they are not eligible, the employer must provide a reason for the ineligibility.

Covered employers must inform employees if leave will be designated as FMLA-protected and the amount of leave counted against the employee's leave entitlement. If the employer determines that the leave is not FMLA-protected, the employer must notify the employee.

Unlawful Acts by Employers

FMLA makes it unlawful for any employer to:

- Interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of any right provided under FMLA;
- Discharge or discriminate against any person for opposing any practice made unlawful by FMLA or for involvement in any proceeding under or relating to FMLA.

Enforcement

An employee may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer.

FMLA does not affect any Federal or State law prohibiting discrimination, or supersede any State or local law or collective bargaining agreement which provides greater family or medical leave rights.

Business Commission and Bonus Guidelines

1. The Business Commission Employee will be paid at a rate of $10.00 per hour during the two-week probationary period provided that the employee is present and on time for work each shift for each of the 10 (ten) days of the probationary period with no unexcused absences and no unexcused tardies.
2. If the conditions as described in paragraph 1 are not met, the employee will be paid minimum wage for the hours worked during the probationary period.
3. No commission will be due or paid to Business Commission Employee for any pledges made or collected during the probationary period for which time the Employee was paid by the hour.
4. If the Business Commission Employee is terminated whether voluntarily or by discharge at any time during the probationary period, that employee will be paid minimum wage for hours worked.
5. After completion of the probationary period the Business Commission Employee will be paid on a commission basis in accordance with the terms and conditions given in the following paragraphs. If Business Commission Employee is not consistently producing a minimum of $50.00 (fifty dollars) per hour in pledged contributions, that Employee may be terminated unless Project Manager obtains authorization from Operations Center for the approval of that employee's continued employment.
6. In the event that the commission due a Business Commission Employee for any particular pay period is less than minimum wage for the hours worked during that pay period, then Employee will be paid minimum wage for the hours worked. When a Business Commission Employee is paid by the hour in lieu of commission, no commission will be due or paid to Business Commission Employee for any pledges made or collected during that pay period. If an employee has two successive pay periods at minimum wage, that employee may be terminated unless Project Manager obtains authorization from Operations Center for the approval of that employee's continued employment.
7. Payday is every Friday via direct deposit or ALINE card. Each Friday the Business Commission Employee will receive a statement known as a commission slip which lists their collected pledges on which their commission and bonuses for that pay period are based. The employee will sign the commission slip(s) and their time card and return these documents to the office for verification of pay.
8. A terminated Business Commission Employee will have 1 (one) final paycheck direct deposited to their bank account or ALINE card. That final paycheck will be calculated for commission on the pledges collected during the final pay period up to the employee's last day worked. Any unpaid pledges still outstanding after the employee's last day worked will be forfeited and no further commission nor bonuses will be due or paid on any pledges collected after the employee's last day worked.
9. The Project Manager will provide currently-employed Business Commission Employee(s) a listing of outstanding unpaid pledges, so as to allow the Employee(s) every opportunity to contact outstanding unpaid pledges in order for the employee to get those pledges collected prior to the end of the project. No commission will be due or paid on pledges that are over 30 days old or that have been reset by another individual.
10. Upon satisfactory completion of the Project or upon transfer to another project location prior to the Project's end, each Business Commission Employee will receive one final paycheck via direct deposit to their bank account or ALINE card. The final paycheck will be calculated for escrow if earned (see paragraphs 18 and 19) and for commission on any of the remaining pledges which had been collected during a 3 to 4 week grace period commencing with the first day after the employee's last day of work at the completed project. The grace period is determined by the Project Manager. The final pay will be direct deposited or applied to the employee's ALINE Card within one week of completion of the one-month grace period. Etsell, Inc. reserves the right to issue a paper check in the event employee is no longer employed by Etsell, Inc.

- 11. Any pledges made whether paid or uncollected and all information provided to procure or attempt to procure any and all such pledges (names, phone numbers, lists, etc.) is and will remain the sole property of Etsell, Inc. including but not limited to lead cards, pledge tracking sheets, daily worksheet provided to the employee to keep a record of amount pledged and collected, and commission slips. Any attempt by anyone to obtain by copy or other methods any of these items for unauthorized purposes or any misuse of the information provided will result in immediate termination of employment and forfeiture of any and all future pay, commissions and bonuses. Furthermore, any such offense will be punishable to the fullest extent allowed by law.
- 12. If Business Commission Employee has already been paid commission on a pledge that later becomes subject to refund or for which the contribution check is returned due to insufficient funds, bank account closed or the funds become unavailable for any reason, any commission and bonuses previously paid on that pledge will be deducted from that employee's next regularly scheduled paycheck.
- 13. No employee will be guaranteed to call any tap type regardless of length of employment or any other factor. Distribution of all lead cards including taps will be at the discretion of the Project Manager and Operations Center.

14. The following is the rate of commission for Business Commission Employees:

- 10% - A-taps (paid pledges from last project year)
- 0% - No commission will be paid on A-tap pledges collected if Pledges are aged to 30 days.
- 20% - B-taps (paid pledges from previous project years who did not Pay last year)
- 0% - No commission will be paid on B-tap pledges collected if Pledges are aged to 30 days.
- 33% - Cold (Z's and ZT's - unpaid pledges from previous years and new pledges)
- 0% - No commission will be paid on cold pledges collected if pledges are aged to 30 days.

- No commission will be paid on any pledge that is $49.00 or less.
- If a "special deal" is offered on any pledge where passes are provided at a discounted rate, the commission paid on that collected pledge will be decreased by the same percentage as the discounted rate per pass.

Example: 100 $10 passes are provided for $5 each for a total $500 cold (BZ) pledge. Because the passes were discounted by half, only half the commission will be paid on that collected pledge.

$$\begin{aligned}
 $500 \times 33\% &= $165.00 \\
 \text{Half of } $165.00 &= $82.50 \text{ will be paid in commission}
 \end{aligned}$$

15. A discretionary bonus rate of 7% may be paid on the amount of increase of an A-tap if collected amount is a minimum of 20% more than the previous paid amount.

	Collected amount this year	$425.00
	= increase of $125.00 or 42%
	Pay includes	$425.00 x 10% $ 42.50

- Review records of work-related injuries and illnesses
- Get copies of test results done to find hazards in the workplace
- If you have concerns, you have the right to speak up about them without fear of retaliation.

Employer Responsibilities

Short summary of key employer responsibilities:

- Provide a workplace free from serious recognized hazards and comply with standards, rules and regulations issued under the OSHA Act.
- Examine workplace conditions to make sure they conform to applicable OSHA standards.
- Make sure employees have and use safe tools and equipment and properly maintain this equipment.
- Use color codes, posters, labels or signs to warn employees of potential hazards.
- Establish or update operating procedures and communicate them so that employees follow safety and health requirements.
- Employers must provide safety training in a language and vocabulary workers can understand.
- Employers with hazardous chemicals in the workplace must develop and implement a written hazard communication program and train employees on the hazards they are exposed to and proper precautions (and a copy of safety data sheets must be readily available). See the OSHA page on Hazard Communication.
- Provide medical examinations and training when required by OSHA standards.
- Post, at a prominent location within the workplace, the OSHA poster (or the state-plan equivalent) informing employees of their rights and responsibilities.
- Report to the nearest OSHA office all work-related fatalities within 8 hours, and all work-related inpatient hospitalizations, all amputations and all losses of an eye within 24 hours. Call our toll-free number: 1-800-321-OSHA (6742); TTY 1-877-889-5627. [Employers under federal OSHA's jurisdiction were required to begin reporting by Jan. 1, 2015. Establishments in a state with a state-run OSHA program should contact their state plan for the implementation date].
- Keep records of work-related injuries and illnesses. (Note: Employers with 10 or fewer employees and employers in certain low-hazard industries are exempt from this requirement.)
- Provide employees, former employees and their representatives access to the Log of Work-Related Injuries and Illnesses (OSHA Form 300). On February 1, and for three months, covered employers must post the summary of the OSHA log of injuries and illnesses (OSHA Form 300A).
- Provide access to employee medical records and exposure records to employees or their authorized representatives.
- Provide to the OSHA compliance officer the names of authorized employee representatives who may be asked to accompany the compliance officer during an inspection.
- Not discriminate against employees who exercise their rights under the Act. See our "Whistleblower Protection" webpage.
- Post OSHA citations at or near the work area involved. Each citation must remain posted until the violation has been corrected, or for three working days, whichever is longer. Post abatement verification documents or tags.
- Correct cited violations by the deadline set in the OSHA citation and submit required abatement verification documentation.
- OSHA encourages all employers to adopt an Injury and Illness Prevention Program. Injury and Illness Prevention Programs, known by a variety of names, are universal interventions that can substantially reduce the number and severity of workplace injuries and alleviate the associated financial burdens on U.S. workplaces. Many states have requirements or voluntary guidelines for workplace Injury and Illness Prevention Programs. Also, numerous employers in the United States already manage safety using Injury and Illness Prevention Programs, and we believe that all employers can and should do the same. Most successful Injury and Illness Prevention Programs are based on a common set of key elements. These include: management leadership, worker participation, hazard identification, hazard prevention and control, education and training, and program evaluation and improvement. OSHA's Injury and Illness Prevention Programs topics page contains more information including examples of programs and systems that have reduced workplace injuries and illnesses.

Crippled Children

Our reset department has experienced many typical and repeated questions about our circus coupons and how they work. Therefore, they have made the following recommendations which we require for ALL salespeople to use. These will increase collections and sponsorship dollars. These requirements are as follows:

- Always disclose your full name and that you are a paid employee of Shrine Services.
- Always use the word "COUPON" and "PASS" during your presentation
- Always explain what the "COUPON" looks like and how it is to be used.
- Never tell a contributor that they will be sponsoring a specific number of people. You should tell them their sponsorship will help us distribute thousands of free passes to deserving organizations from all over the city. Remember to name a few of them.
- Do not write negative comments on the pledge cards.
- Make sure all cards are cover-carded properly at the end of the day and placed in the proper receptacles as instructed by your project manager.
- Donations are NOT tax deductible and you should never indicate otherwise.
- Use SECOND EFFORTS! No second effort is no effort at all.

Specifically for Business Contributors

- Always ask for credit card / echeck payment immediately.
- If sponsor does not want to pay by e-fund, always explain that a Representative will be coming by to drop off their invoice and passes.
- Always ask for the sponsor's delivery address, and never read the address that appears on the pledge card. Always ask for directions and if there is someone else the check can be left with in case that person is unavailable or leaves the office.
- Always tell the sponsor someone will be calling them back to verify the pledge.
- Always when closing, remind them to go ahead and write the check, put it in an envelope, and have it ready for the driver. We get a stronger commitment this way.

Remember your commissions and bonuses are dependent on the prompt return of the pledges you make. The more informed the donor is the better chance you have of receiving your pay from a promptly paid donation.

Specifically for Residential Contributors

- Always ask for credit card / echeck payment immediately.
- If sponsor does not want to pay by e-fund, always ask for the sponsor's mailing address, and never read the address from the card.
- Always tell the sponsor someone will be calling them back in a few minutes to verify their mailing address and sponsorship amount.
- Always explain the Postage-Paid Business Reply Envelope with their local Shriner's return mailing address on it that will be included when we send their coupon, so the contributor knows we have provided a convenient and legitimate way for them to send back their pledge.
- Always when closing, inform the sponsor we need them to mail back their generous donation within one to two days after receiving the sponsorship packet. We get stronger collections this way.

Objection Handling / Rebuttals

Shoring Up A Wavering Customer

If someone says "Maybe," "I'll try," "I'll see what I can do," "I don't understand," or anything similar to this, then tell them:

I understand sir/ma'am, but considering the cost of postage and printing we need to know you can definitely return these funds for the children. Can you commit to that for us?

If they don't understand why it is this way, then use one of the following rebuttals:

- 1) If we mail out the packets only for information, we would actually lose money toward the cause. Most people don't respond anyway. It costs much less to call people up first to see who can definitely help these children before we create expense by mailing something out.
- 2) We don't have any printed materials other than the pledge packets. The cost of the paper, printing, postage, and processing would increase our expenses and would actually decrease the available money for the fundraiser. The reason I am calling is to give you the information and answer any questions you may have. Was I clear on what we are doing and about helping the Shrine and the kids? I can put you down for our basic pledge of $$.

OBJECTION: I'm not interested (If in the beginning of pitch before talking about $$)

You know (sir/ma'am) I have heard that a couple of times today but both of those folks thought they had to pay over the phone today. That of course is an option, but you're certainly not obligated to. We can mail you out a pledge packet with a self-addressed stamped envelope, and you can mail your donation if that is what you prefer. Now what you donate is up to you of course. Some give $100 and others give $40, but most have been donating around $60. Which can I put you down for? (Proceed Accordingly)

OBJECTION: I'm not interested (After talking about $$)

Are you not interested because you don't like to do business over the phone or is it something else? (Follow up accordingly)

OBJECTION: I'm broke / can't afford / no money / on SSI

- 1) Just to be clear (sir/ma'am) even a little goes a LONG way. So if you could find it in your heart to help these children with a generous donation of ONLY (2 pass amount) then it sure would mean a lot to the kids. We can put you down for that can't we? (If no, drop to 1 pass amount)
- 2) That's understandable (sir/ma'am) we hear that more and more every year, but if everybody gives just a little then next thing you know there are a whole lot of happy kids at the circus and that's something you would be proud to be part of wouldn't you (sir/ma'am) So what I'll do for you is put you down for (# of passes) for (amount) or (# of passes) for (amount), which works best for you?
- 3) I understand (sir/ma'am) budgets are tight everywhere this year and that's why we need your help more than ever! The Shriner's just can't do it without you, and without your help the Shriner's won't be around to continue doing all the other GREAT work they do in your community. So what I'll do for you is put you down for just a small level of (# of passes) for (amount) or (# of passes) for (amount), which works best for you?
- 4) I understand (sir/ma'am). Believe it or not most of the donations we receive are from people in the exact same situation. It doesn't take much to put a smile on these children's faces and it's such a GREAT thing to be a part of. So what I'll do for you is put you down for just a small level of (# of passes) for (amount) or (# of passes) for (amount), which works best for you? (Use smaller # here 3 pass level and 2 pass level)

OBJECTION: I give to a Shriner I know or When I see them out

It's great that you do that, but this is the single biggest fundraiser the Shrine does all year. Without us generating these funds for them, many of the things the Shrine tries to do for the community and those that need them might be shut down. We ask for very little and only do this once a year. So many people promise to do this through someone else but either forget to or change their minds. While I have you on the line, could you commit this just once for these kids? We mark it in our system so we know where every penny is, and that it goes to the proper place. We send you a circus coupon so you can attend the show and know exactly where the money goes, and you can call the Shrine and verify who we are. So what I'll do for you is put you down for just a small level of (# of passes) for (amount) or (# of passes) for (amount), which works best for you? (Use smaller # here 3 pass level and 2 pass level)

OBJECTION: I give locally / I give to church / I give to another charity

- 1) I can appreciate that and you don't have to worry because what we do is local and stays local. Hundreds of needy kids in the area get to experience a once in a lifetime event without having to go too far away. When you get this in the mail, it will verify that. We do it like this to maximize the number of children who can go while keeping fundraising costs as low as possible.
- 2) 2) Sir/Ma'am, I think that's wonderful that you support your church and its ministries, but we only do this once a year and we ask for very little to go a long way for kids who really need help from caring folks like you. I know God would bless you if you could give a little more above and beyond what you already have. So what I'll do for you is put you down for just a small level of (# of passes) for (amount) or (# of passes) for (amount), which works best for you? (Use smaller # here 3 pass level and 2 pass level).
- 3) 3) That's great (sir/ma'am) I certainly don't want to take away from that, but if you could find it in your heart to spare just a little more, I know these special needs children and the Shriner's will be grateful. So what I'll do for you is put you down for (# of passes) for (amount) or (# of passes) for (amount), which works best for you?

OBJECTION: I can't give that much

That's not a problem (sir/ma'am) not everybody does. The important thing to remember is that even a little goes a LONG way, so even (3 pass amount) or (2 pass amount) will benefit the kids and help the Shriner's reach their goal. Which is going to work best for you? (If still can't help drop to 1 pass amount)

OBJECTION: I don't want to attend the circus / I don't have kids to take to the circus / Circus too far away

- 1) Most of our sponsors don't attend the show (sir/ma'am) so you certainly don't have to. The great thing about the circus is that it helps these special needs children create a lifetime of memories that otherwise just wouldn't be possible and I'm sure you can appreciate that can't you? So what I'll do for you is put you down for (# of passes) for (amount) or (# of passes) for (amount), which works best for you?
- 2) Please understand, it's about helping these special needs and underprivileged children go to the circus. This is a once a year event that gives them the chance to just be a kid even if it's only for a day, and I'm sure you can agree that's a worthy cause can't you? So what I'll do for you is put you down for (# of passes) for (amount) or (# of passes) for (amount), which works best for you?
- 3) I can understand that, but the true purpose of the circus is to give these special needs children the opportunity to experience something they might not ever have the chance to do again. So what I'll do for you is put you down for (# of passes) for (amount) or (# of passes) for (amount), which works best for you?
- 4) I understand, but you can still help the Shrine with a sponsorship. This is for the kids and is also the Shrine's biggest fundraiser for the local fraternity. When you receive your sponsorship packet in the mail, just sign the back of your pass/coupon and return it along with your sponsorship check or money order and that helps increase Shrine-donated attendance! Or you can give your passes to someone that you think would enjoy attending.

OBJECTION: I don't do business over the phone

- 1) That's a smart idea (sir/ma'am), you never know who you are talking to. We just make initial contact over the phone so we know who to mail the pledge packet to. It costs so much to mail things these days we don't want to waste even a single penny. That being said let me tell you why I'm calling today. (Roll into pitch)
- 2) I understand and I am only getting a pledge and wouldn't ask you to pay over the phone. We send out the pledge packet and inside is the redeemable coupon and return envelope including a phone number to call if you have any further questions. Any legitimacy issues will be answered with the pledge packet. Now, can I put you down for $$ or $$$?

OBJECTION: Send me something in the mail

- 1) I'm glad you mentioned that (sir/ma'am), because that's exactly why I'm calling. We mail out pledge packets to people just like you who want to help special needs children attend the Shrine Circus and have an experience they otherwise may never get to have. We just need to find out what donation amount you are comfortable with and we can mail out the pledge packet with a self-addressed stamped envelope for you to return your donation. So what I'll do for you is put you down for (# of passes) for (amount) or (# of passes) for (amount), which works best for you?

- 2) (Sir/ma'am), due to rising costs of mailing information we found that answering questions over the phone is more cost effective. By doing this, more of the money donated goes toward helping these special needs children attend the circus and giving the Shriner's the ability to continue all the great work they do. Once I have answered all of your questions and you have chosen a donation amount you are comfortable with I will mail out the pledge packet with a self-addressed stamped envelope for you to return your donation. So what I'll do for you is put you down for (# of passes) for (amount) or (# of passes) for (amount), which works best for you?

OBJECTION: Mistreated Animals

I'm glad to hear you're concerned for the animals (sir/ma'am). Let me assure you that every circus we are affiliated with treat these animals with the upmost care and meet ALL state and federal inspection codes. They are bathed daily, fed only the best food, and in some cases the animals are kept at local farms between shows. Based on these facts and the level of medical care each animal receives, the average life expectancy is about 80% longer than if that animal was in the wild. I'm sure you see the good in that don't you?

OBJECTION: I'm in the middle of something / on the other line

This is the Shrine's biggest fundraiser for the local fraternity and we're getting sponsors for the Shrine Circus. We really need your help. I promise this will only take 1 minute.

OBJECTION: I don't want to participate / This is not something I believe in

I'm sure you're familiar with the great work the Shriners do, that's all this is about is helping some kids who wouldn't otherwise get a chance to go to the circus. We have a packet that's only $____ .

OBJECTION: I'm sick / just got out of the hospital / I'm ill

Well I certainly hope you get to feeling better soon. I know just the thing to pick up your spirits. You could help the Shrine get circus passes to kids in your name by doing just small sponsorship for $____.

OBJECTION: You will have to call back and talk to my husband/wife

For as good a cause as something like this, I'm sure your husband/wife won't mind if you do the smallest amount to help the Shrine get circus passes to kids in your area. With the two free passes you get, you could even take him or her to the circus as a date.

OBJECTION: No one here by that name / they don't live at this number

Well that's ok. We're trying to reach everyone to let them know about the Shrine Circus and the good the works the Shriners do. Proceed with script.

OBJECTION: That's too far for me to drive / don't drive at night / wouldn't be interested in going to the circus

I understand that Mr/Mrs. ____ but the main focus of the Shrine Circus is about sending some children who wouldn't have an opportunity any other way to see the circus for free. If you don't want to go yourself you can still help the Shrine. Let me put our smallest packet together for you. It's just $__ and it gives you a coupon good for __ free passes to donate to a needy family. If you don't want to go, sign the back of the pass when you receive it and return it with your check or money, which will increase Shrine-donated attendance or you can give it to anyone you know.

OBJECTION: This is my computer / children's line

I'm terribly sorry for calling you on this line. If you will give me the correct number along with your complete mailing address I can send your pledge packet out to you and get your number changed in our records. Now which level would you like for me to put you down for? We have one that is $____ that entitles you to a coupon good for ____ free passes and one that is $____ that will entitle you to a coupon good for ____ free passes.

OBJECTION: Sound hateful – I don't have time for that

These are kids from area organizations such as . . . We just really need to make time for them. They are depending on us, and this will take just one minute of your time. I just need your mailing address and I can mail you our minimum pledge packet which is just $____ and you get a coupon good for ____ free passes so that you can take your friends and family.

OBJECTION: If they begin throwing combinations of excuses

(Sir/Ma'am) please understand how many underprivileged children and seniors the Shriners have on the list and how much they look forward to going to the circus. These are children from area organizations such as . . . , children that otherwise wouldn't be able to do anything such as this. How about if I put you down for our smallest level which is . . .

OBJECTION: I can only send $5.00 or $10

That's awesome! Please make your check payable to SHRINE CIRCUS FUND and include your contributor ID and my name on the outside of the envelope. Mail it to PO Box # _____, City/State/Zip. Thank you very much.

Frequently Asked Questions

$ Amount	# of Passes	$ Amount	# of Passes

Who are the Shriners? An organization of businessmen involved in the community activities who help children.

Where did you get my name/number? We buy a list, upload it into the computer system, and then go through it alphabetically. Always assure them that the Shriners will NEVER sell their list, share the list or use it for any other purpose than to contact them regarding the Shrine Circus.

What is the percentage breakdown? All monies collected are deposited into the (Name of Temple) Shrine Circus Fund bank account. Typically after expenses of the campaign are paid the Shrine retains 75% of net receipts and Shrine Services receives 25% of net receipts.  Consult your manager if you need help answering this question.

What is your authorization to do this? We comply with all necessary local and state licensing procedures in order to solicit funds. Alabama registration # AL16-058PF; Florida registration # SS659; North Carolina registration # SL10029; South Carolina registration # PFRID F4772; Tennessee registration # PS25; Texas No registration required; Virginia Registered name Etsell, Inc.

Do you have a website? For circus info visit: www.shrinecircusfund.com. For Shriners info visit www.shrinershq.org. For company info visit: www.etsellinc.com or www.shrineservices.com.

Why are you calling so early? Everything must be paid for in advance before the Shriners can start the enormous job of distributing free passes to the organizations.

Do children under a certain age get in for free? Children who do not take up a seat get in for free. All others must have a pass to get into the circus.

Is my pledge tax deductible? No. The fact that you are getting passes in return for sponsoring negates this.

How many children does my pledge sponsor? The number of kids each pass will sponsor depends on total community participation. We try to send just as many children as possible with each donation.

Why are you paid/ why not have volunteers?

The reason we can't get volunteers is because the average age of a Shriner now is 72. We cannot get volunteers to come in and do this every day. If we weren't helping these folks out, there might not be a circus and the Shrine might have to close its doors and not be available when needed.

If you are sending special needs children to the Shrine Circus with a sponsorship from me, then why are you sending me passes that you could be giving to them? Sir/Ma'am, we do this as a way of showing our appreciation for your sponsorship. Sixty percent of those who donate do not attend and end up sending their passes back anyway. By attending the circus yourself, you get to see where your money is going, and you get to see the children firsthand that you've helped to sponsor.

Where Do the Donations Go?

What percent goes to the children?

The Shrine Circus has been the Shriner's major fundraiser for years now. The profits go to the annual operation budget to keep this city's local Shrine office open. As you know the Shriners are not paid, but the support staff such as the secretaries are paid a modest wage. They also have costs such as utilities, office supplies, phone bills, etc. that need to be paid. The Shriners work with non-profit groups from this area all year long either volunteering or giving them financial help. The children, and in some cases, the elderly people from our community that you are sponsoring are coming as guests of the community to a special presentation of the Shriner's circus! The Shriners need for the community to get involved in this sponsorship because they simply couldn't reach their lofty goals of free tickets given away without your help. These are people who really would not have this opportunity to attend without the support of the community. We provide complimentary passes so the community can go and see what a difference their sponsorship makes to these kids. It's a great way to get out for some family fun at the same time.

If they continue to question what percent goes to the Shriner's or to the Professional

Solicitor:

Please refer to the Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ's). On average the professional solicitor receives approximately 10% of net receipts after payment of campaign expenses.

Who are the Shriners?

Members of the Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine for North America are members of the Masonic Order and adhere to the principles of Freemasonry — Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth.

Freemasonry is the oldest, largest, and most widely known fraternal organization in the world. It dates back hundreds of years to when stonemasons and other craftsmen on building projects gathered in shelter houses or lodges. Through the years these gatherings changed in many ways until formal Masonic lodges emerged, with members bound together not by trade, but by their own wishes to be fraternal brothers.

Shriners are distinguished by an enjoyment of life in the interest of philanthropy. The approximately 500,000 member organization has a buoyant philosophy that has been expressed as "Pleasure without intemperance, hospitality without rudeness and jollity without coarseness."

Shriners support what has become known as the "World's Greatest Philanthropy," Shriner's Hospitals for Children.

Men from all walks of life and all levels of income find fun, fellowship and relaxation in their local Shrine Center and its activities. There are also regional Shrine Clubs in many communities. Family picnics, dances, parties and scheduled trips to near and far are just a few of the activities available.

There are 191 Shrine Centers, or chapters, located in the United States, Canada, Mexico and the Republic of Panama. Informal Shrine Clubs are located all around the world.

Dear Sirs:

The following is the official position of the Grand Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons of Tennessee on the subject of Freemasonry and Religion.

Freemasonry is not a religion, nor is it a substitute for religion. It requires of its members, belief in God as part of the obligation of every responsible adult, but advocates no sectarian faith or practice. Masonic ceremonies include prayer, both traditional and extempore, to reaffirm each individual's dependence on God and to seek divine guidance. Freemasonry is open to men of any faith, but religion may not be discussed at Masonic meetings. The Grand Lodge of Tennessee does not teach or advocate universalism (the doctrine that all people will eventually be saved and go to heaven) or any other theological doctrine.

Masons believe that there is one God and that people employ many different ways to seek and to express what they know of God. Masonry primarily uses the appellation, "Grand Architect of the Universe" and other non-sectarian titles, to address Deity. In this way, persons of different faiths may join together in prayer, concentrating on God, rather than differences among themselves. Masonry believes in religious freedom and that the relationship between the individual and God is personal, private and sacred.

An open Volume of the Sacred Law, "the rule and guide of life," is an essential part of every Masonic meeting. The volume of the Sacred Law to a Christian is the Bible; to Freemasons of other faiths, it is the Book held holy by them.

The obligations taken by Freemasons are sworn on the Volume of the Sacred Law. They are undertakings to follow the principles of Freemasonry and to keep confidential a Freemason's means of recognition. The much discussed "penalties", judicial remnants from an earlier era, are symbolic, not literal. They refer only to the pain any honest man should feel at the thought of violating his word.

Freemasonry lacks the basic elements of religion:

- (a) It has no dogmas or theology, no wish or means to enforce religious orthodoxy.
- (b) It offers no sacraments.
- (c) It does not claim to lead to salvation by works, by secret knowledge or by any other means. The secrets of Freemasonry are concerned with modes of recognition, not with the means of salvation.

Freemasonry is far from indifferent toward religion. Without interfering in religious practice, it expects each member to follow his own faith and to place his duty to God above all other duties. Its moral teachings are acceptable to all religions.

I hope this clarification of Freemasonry and Religion will enlighten the critics of this ancient Craft. In other words, "Better to light one candle than curse the darkness."

Sincerely,

Thomas E. Hager
